Bailey Sales Corporation is a manufacturing and distribution company of hydraulic and related components. Our primary market focus (our vision) is to serve the mobile power industries. We manufacture hydraulic cylinders and power units in our Knoxville facility and distribute related products sourced worldwide. Our primary markets are agriculture, construction and the repair and replacement market. Bailey is privately held with 98 employees.

We focus on continuous improvement and have made dramatic gains in output over the last three years and are eager to share our progress and our future efforts.

Note: Please bring your safety glasses if you have some.
